

Evaluating Electronic Sources

ALL-NEWS.CLASSZONE.COM

Along the top, note the name of the organization.

Below the organization name, see the various locations within the Web site for news relating to technology, politics, health, and so on.

These are “links” (connections) to breaking news stories. A user can click each link to connect with a story.

This section identifies the organization that created and maintains the Web site, along with contact information (shown as a link) and a date showing the most recent update.